Answer the following three questions after reading the SF Chronicle article on Ski wax along with the other assigned reading which introduces some of the motivation for Green Chemistry.

A) From the perspective of your discipline, what happened in this case?

B) Does this case represent a problem from the perspective of your discipline? If so, in what way?

C) What kinds of information outside your own discipline, if provided to you, might have produced a different outcome from that reported by the Chronicle?